DEATH OF MR. PEYTON BALLENGER.

Today we are called upon to announce the death of another old citizen—Mr. Peyton BALLENGER—who died at the residence of Mr. Presley Bloxham, in West End, this morning, after an illness of about ten days.

Mr. BALLENGER, it will be remembered, was on his way to his home in Fairfax county, when taken ill, and being unable to proceed stopped at Mr. Bloxham's house, and growing worse, it was deemed imprudent to have him removed. The deceased was in his seventy-seventh year and for half a century had conducted the boot and shoe trade in the neighborhood of his late place of business. He came to this city from Fairfax county when about thirteen years of age, and having learned his trade was for a short time employed in Dean's shoe factory, on Alfred street, between Cameron and King. Upon the decline of the factory Mr. BALLENGER began business for himself, and by close application to it soon became prosperous. The deceased was ever regarded as an upright, unobtrusive gentleman, and was esteemed by all who knew him. Mr. BALLENGER had been married twice and leaves a widow and several grown children. There are now, it is believed, but two persons left on the square where Mr. BALLENGER's store is situated whose business was contemporaneous with his—Messrs. J. H. Devaughn and Michael Germann.

PROPERTY SALES.—Messrs. Green & Wise have sold for Mr. J. A. Field the house and lot on the northwest corner of Prince and Union streets, to Mrs. Rosa Driefus, for $750.

Messrs. S. G. Brent and J. K. M. Norton have purchased from Messrs. Burke & Herbert a lot on Madison street, between Columbus and Alfred, for $750, and have sold a small portion of the lot to Mrs. M. L. Laphen for $150.

Mr. S. G. Brent has sold for the Baltimore United Oil Company a lot on the west side of Fayette street, between Cameron and Queen, to H. B. Palmer, for $100.

Messrs. Norton and Brent have sold to H. B. Rafter a lot on Henry street, between Madison and Wythe, for $125.

Messrs. O'Neal & Lunt have sold to Miss Elizabeth Smythe a house and lot on Queen street, between Columbus and Alfred, for $500.

Mr. R. T. Lucas sold to-day at public auction for Mr. James R. Caton, trustee, a lot of ground situated on the north side of King street, between Alfred and Patrick, 25 feet front by 100 feet deep, and improved by a three-story brick dwelling to Mr. Wm. H. Barstow, of Washington, D. C., for $2000.

MORE CHARTERS.—Judge Norton to-day granted the following charters:

The Virginia and Kentucky Coal and Mining Company. The objects are to acquire, hold or lease real and personal property and to improve, develop and sell the same; to prospect for and explore mines, quarry, ore, minerals, &c. The capital stock is to be not less than $2,000,000, divided into shares of $100 each. The principal office is to be in this city. The officers are A. B. Harris, of Boston, president and C. J. Gay, of New York, secretary and treasurer. Among the directors are J. B. Moon and L. H. Shields, of Virginia.

The Edwin Land and Iron Company. The objects are to acquire, hold, lease and sell lands, to improve the same and to lay off lands into town or city lots, &c. The capital stock is to be $500,000, divided into shares of $10 each. The principal office is to be in this city and the officers are A. B. Harris, of Boston, president, and L. H. Shields, of Norfolk, secretary and treasurer.

THE B. & O. SOUTHERN CONNECTION.—Senator Faulkner introduced a bill yesterday granting to the "Metropolitan Southern Railroad Company" right of way sixty feet wide through the grounds of the Washington city reservoir, in Montgomery county. The bill further provides that the Secretary of War must approve the route, and prescribe how the railroad shall cross the conduit road. This measure is really a new attempt of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad to make connection with the South. For years, it will be remembered, the Baltimore and Ohio sought to tunnel under the Capitol grounds, and thus reach South Washington to cross the Potomac. But every proposition of this nature was unhesitatingly rejected, and the road now tries to cross the river by another route. By the bill it proposes as the "Metropolitan Southern" to strike off from its Metropolitan branch, skirt through Georgetown, and cross the river somewhere near the Chain Bridge.

MADE HASTE TO REACH THE COURT.—Lawyer G. A. Mushbach, of Alexandria, attorney for the plaintiff in the case of Wolcott vs. The Island and Seaboard Coasting Company, came before the court in general term yesterday in somewhat of a hurry, dressed more for comfort than for a public appearance. He apologized to the court for not having made himself more presentable, saying he had not expected to be called into court. He was attending to some client matters, picked up the morning Post and there for the first time learned of the assignment of the case for hearing yesterday. There was no time in which to change clothing, and taking the first train he hastened to the court. His excuse was acceptable, and both sides being agreeable, the hearing was continued.—Wash. Post.

Capt. Mushbach says the above originated from a casual remark he made while in the Washington court room. The cue was heard and he was the suit.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. F. W. Elbrey and children have gone to Sandy Spring, Md.

Mr. A. J. Harper, formerly of this city, the now of Baltimore, is in the city on a visit to friends.

Mr. B. H. Gordon is in the Adirondack mountains, New York.

Mrs. Charles B. Marshall is spending the summer in Fairfax and Prince William counties.

The condition of Mr. Ephraim Adams, who was hurt by being struck on the head by a railroad gate in Washington, while on his way to this city on a train on Thursday night, continues serious, though he is resting more quietly to-day.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.—At a meeting of O. O. Dominion Commandery No. 11, K. T., held last night, the following officers for the ensuing year were elected: viz: A. W. Armstrong, E. C.; Jas. V. Davis, Generalissimo; W. W. Athey, C. G.; Jas. E. Alexander, Prelate; Joo. H. Fisher, Recorder; French Smoot, Treasurer; A. A. Warfield, Senior Warden; A. G. Unler, Junior Warden; Geo. Mays, Standard Bearer; Alex. Drummond, Sword Bearer; T. H. Netherland, Warden; Jas. Grigg, Sentinel.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and mild with to prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Henry Munson and Wm. Dudley, both colored, arrested by Lieut. Smith for fighting on the wharf yesterday evening, were fined, the former $1 and the latter $1.50.

A white man, arrested by Officer Sherwood for being drunk and disorderly on Pitt street, between King and Prince, last night, was locked up for further examination.

BISHOP KEANE.—Archbishop J. J. Keane, rector of the Catholic University of America, who, as stated in yesterday's GAZETTE, was injured in the railroad accident on the B. & O. R. R., was resting very quietly last night at the Providence Hospital, Washington, and there was every indication that ten days hence he will have fully recovered his health and start again on his journey across the ocean. No bones were broken, neither are there any flesh wounds, but he received a very severe shock, from which he is suffering, and for this rest and quiet is believed by his physicians, Doctors Mallan and Koons, to be the best remedy. His trip to Europe, to which he was to have started to-day has been abandoned for the present.
